

Promotions Announced at BlueSpark

BlueSpark Healthcare Communications LLC is pleased to announce two recent promotions.

Jonathan M. Wert, MD, has been promoted to Medical Director. Jonathan joined the company in 2008 as an Associate Medical Director responsible for developing content in a range of therapeutic areas including diabetes mellitus, cystic fibrosis, gastroenterological conditions including hepatitis, pancreatic insufficiency, inflammatory bowel disease, and Helicobacter pylori infection, as well as central nervous system issues such as major depressive disorder, generalized anxiety disorder, and insomnia. Prior to joining BlueSpark, Jonathan was a Senior Consultant Advisor for the Independent Consultancy, a physician-directed organization in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in biology from the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, and received his Doctorate of Medicine from Drexel University College of Medicine (formerly the Medical College of Pennsylvania/Hahnemann University) in Philadelphia. He then trained and served as a physician in the Pediatrics Division of Albert Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia. Jonathan has written manuscripts for peer-reviewed publications, monographs, abstracts, investigator brochures, posters, and slide kits.

Michelle M. Stone has been promoted to Program Director. Michelle joined BlueSpark in 2008 as a Program Coordinator responsible for providing the day-to-day support of various teams, assisting them with meeting and manuscript preparation. Prior to joining BlueSpark, she was a Meeting Planner with Advanced Health Media in Bridgewater, New Jersey, where she was responsible for managing and coordinating multiple speaker meetings, as well confirming meeting logistics and venues. After earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in public relations from York College of Pennsylvania, she began her career as a Special Events Coordinator with Community Options, Inc. in Princeton, New Jersey. Michelle then joined Advogent (formerly Cardinal Health) in Piscataway, New Jersey, as a Program Coordinator.
